

July and August saw two hugely successful clinics with Jon, the first at Netley and the other at Kingswood. We had around 45 riders in attendance across the two dates and it was lovely to see so many of you there.

The next date with Jon is Tuesday 20th October at Radfords. This will be an afternoon/ evening clinic and there are still a few spaces remaining. Booking is available on Horse Monkey or contact me for further help or if you have any questions.

Look forward to seeing lots of you there.
